Eastern Division of the International Association of Fire Chiefs

Article I – General

Section 1 Name

The organization, a division of the International Association of Fire Chiefs (IAFC), Inc., shall be known as the Eastern Division of the International Association of Fire Chiefs, Inc., herein called the "EDIAFC", or "Division".

Section 2 Mission Statement

The mission of the Division is to support the goals and objectives of the International Association of Fire Chiefs by serving as the liaison between the IAFC and the Division's member states. The Division will do this by professionally consolidating regional issues and opinions, providing valuable and necessary input to the IAFC, and disseminating pertinent information from the International Association of Fire Chiefs to the Division's member states.

Section 3 Purpose and Objectives

The purpose of this organization is to serve as the representative of choice for career and volunteer leaders of fire and related emergency service organizations throughout the Division's community, and to support and enhance the work of those leaders and organizations in order that they may best provide for the protection of people and the environment from the occurrence and outcomes of fires and other natural, technological, and human behavior caused emergencies. To carry out the aforementioned purpose, the Division shall provide its member career and volunteer leaders of fire and related emergency service organizations with the following:

- A. Information and education for use within fire and related emergency service organizations and for use in educating the public;
- B. Representation, both within the Division and with governmental and non-governmental organizations;
- C. Act as a premier clearinghouse and point of exchange of experience, ideas, and general knowledge in all areas encompassing fire and related emergencies, particularly effective response thereto;
- D. Support of, and primary point of Division contact for local, state, and regional organizations that share all or part of the goals of the Division; and

- E. Support in strengthening and enhancing all the diverse missions of the fire service with focus on core missions such as suppression, prevention, and emergency medical services.

The objectives of this organization are declared to be the following:

- A. To invite and urge all individuals and corporations eligible for membership to become members and to give their active and/or moral support to the cause of safeguarding life and property from the destruction of fire, environmental, natural, and technological emergencies.
- B. To aid in the establishment of standards for apparatus, equipment, and fire extinguishment methods in public and private fire departments.
- C. To aid in the establishment of standards for organizing, equipping, and training volunteer, career, and combination fire departments and encourage their adoption.
- D. To promote exhibitions of proper and efficient methods and evolutions for fire suppression.
- E. To promote and support legislation that will result in better building construction, greater safety to life and property, and better the conditions in public fire departments.
- F. To distribute information on fire prevention and life safety and promote public comprehensive life safety education.
- G. To encourage fire department fire prevention activity as well as fire suppression activity.
- H. To support and encourage the delivery of pre-hospital emergency medical services by the fire service to relieve human trauma.

Section 4 Division Location

There shall be a Division headquarters office at a place approved by the EDIAFC Board of Directors. For all intent and purposes, the official address of the Division will most likely be the home address of the Executive Director or a post office box that is convenient for the Executive Director to access.

Section 5 Bonding of Officers

The Executive Director, and employees or officers authorized to receive and administer funds by the EDIAFC Board of Directors, shall be bonded by the Division in an amount approved by the EDIAFC Board of Directors.

Article II – Membership

Section 1 Membership

The Division shall include membership from the states of Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, and the District of Columbia. For all matters relative to members with a District of Columbia addresses or affiliations, these members will be assigned to and be a part the State of Maryland.

B. Members of the EDIAFC Board of Directors shall be members and have their legal residences within the states included in the Division. In the case of Division members who have a legal residence in one state and work or represent a fire agency in another state, that member will represent the state where their association with a fire agency is located. Such affiliation may be a fire district, municipal, private, industrial, career or volunteer.

C. The President, ~~1st Vice President~~, and ~~2nd Vice Presidents~~ ~~term~~ shall be for one (1) year following the rotation as defined in Article III, Section ~~3~~ (A).

D. The Executive Director shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. This post shall be appointed, during the proper order of business at a Division board meeting, for a period of time to be determined by the Board of Directors.

E. The Eastern Director to the International Association of Fire Chiefs ~~is selected by the Board of Directors~~ for a term of three (3) years. In keeping with the IAFC Constitution and Bylaws (CBL) and unlike the other Division officers, the Eastern Director to the IAFC must be non-retired and an active member, ~~It is highly recommended that candidates must have been a past president of the Eastern Division to be considered for this position.~~

Deleted: shall be elected by ballot

Deleted: Regular

Deleted: , per Article II, Section 2 (A)(a) and (b) or (e)

F. The President may not serve successive terms, unless a situation occurs where the continuity of leadership is needed to ensure the Division is well represented and the affairs of the ~~Division~~ are attended to. This decision will be made by the Board of Directors, weighing all the possibilities, in an effort to do what is best for the Division at that time. The Board of Directors may act, at any board meeting, to make such a determination.

G. Officers shall serve until their successors have been installed.

Section 2 Officer Eligibility

Any members of the Division seeking election to State Director shall meet the Constitution and By-Laws shall:

A. At the time of appointment, serve as a chief officer or other designee, for one (1) year minimum and as outlined in Article II, Section 2; in a fire and/or EMS department within the states included in the Division. The individual shall be a member of the Division, in good standing, at the time of filing a letter of intent and upon installation. The Board of Directors will require documented proof of such chief officer positions held.

B. In keeping with the IAFC CBL's, and unlike the other Division officers, the Eastern Director to the IAFC must be non-retired and an active member, per Article II, Section 2. It is strongly encouraged that candidates to be considered for Eastern Director has served a past president of the Division.

Section 3 State Directors

A. In addition to the President, 1st Vice President, 2nd Vice President, immediate Past President, Executive Director, and International Director, the EDIAFC Board of Directors shall consist of five (5) additional members; one (1) from each of the States of this Division. For the purposes of this Section, members from the District of Columbia will be grouped with Maryland for the election of a Director. The State Director nominations will be presented before the Board of Directors for review and approval. If elected State Directors are committing to a nine (9) year term serving five (5) years as a State Director before cycling through the three chairs serving as 2nd Vice President, 1st Vice President, President, then Immediate Past President. Note there may be exceptions to a State Directors length of office and rotation through the chairs when a vacancy would occur during a members term of office.

B. In the event of a vacancy of a State Director between conferences, or in mid-term, the Board of Directors (BOD) will ask the respective state fire chief's organization(s) to submit a name for consideration as an appointment, to fill the unexpired term. Such nominated candidates will need to have the proper qualifications as per the Division CBL's. State fire chief's organization(s) will submit a letter to the BOD, stating their endorsement for their candidate, with biographical information, to include supplemental documents of chief officer positions held. Action to fill the vacancy can be taken at any ED BOD regular or tele-conference board meeting.

Section 4 State Directors' Eligibility

State Directors shall be members in good standing; per Article III, Section 1, and shall be selected in accordance with the Division CBL's. A State Director, who vacates their position as chief officer, through retirement or otherwise, while holding the position of State Director, may continue to hold the position until the end of their term. Section 8. Removal from Office

Deleted: 8

A. In the event that an officer is convicted of a felony while holding office, that officer shall be deemed to have forfeited their office, and shall be removed from that office, by the Board of Directors.

B. If at any time, it comes to the attention of the Board of Directors, that an officer's address, work status, or other qualification related problem exists, the Board of Directors can initiate an internal investigation to ensure that the specific officer still meets the requirements within the CBL's. At the conclusion of the inquiry, with proper documentation, a vote by the Board of Directors, at an official board meeting or an official conference call, could remove the person in question from office.

C. When attendance records indicate lack of participation by an officer, the situation will be reviewed by the Board of Directors. Discussion at a regular board meeting or on a conference call, could result in a vote to remove said officer from office, due to lack of participation in the affairs of the Division.

D. In the event that an Officer becomes impaired physically or mentally to such an extent that the officer holder is unable to discharge the powers and duties of said office, that Officer shall be removed from office if a minimum of five members of the Board of Directors vote in favor of removal from office, therefore creating a vacancy in that office.
